

Sanjeev Aggarwal

---

Sanjeev Aggarwal is Managing Director, for AES Chhattisgarh Energy and is leading the other development efforts of AES in the Indian power sector. Sanjeev is trained as a mechanical engineer, with PGDM from IIM, Ahmedabad. He has more than 12 years of experience in the Indian and international electricity industry working in the areas of project development, project finance, and consultancy. Sanjeev gained the experience of electricity trading in developed markets of Western Europe while providing business solutions to leading trading companies. Sanjeev has also advised large project finance transactions from the lenders' perspective. He serves on various advisory committees in the Indian power sector including heading the Power Committee of AmCham India and as a member of FICCI Power Committee.