
Global and Regional Perspectives on Carbon Capture and Storage

The World Energy Council (WEC)
Committee on Cleaner Fossil Fuels Systems (CFFS)
Focused Lecture

Tallinn, Estonia
September 4, 2006

Barbara N. McKee
Chairman, CFFS Committee

Fossil fuels will continue to be needed globally for power generation.

World Electric Power Generation by Source, 2002 and 2030 (TWh)

Source: IEA, World Energy Outlook, 2004

CFFS Committee Focused Lecture

Tallinn, Estonia, September 4, 2006

Theme: “Global and Regional Perspectives on Carbon Capture and Storage”

Topics:

- 1. “Carbon Capture and Storage: A WEC Interim Balance – What is the message for the Baltic States”-
Klaus Brendow, Senior Advisor, WEC
- 2. “Practical Aspects of Oil Shale Energy in Estonia”
Mati Uus, Development Director, Narva Power Plants Ltd.
- 3. “What are the Options for Europe and the Baltic States to Mitigate CO₂ Emissions?”-
Anita Kvesko, Senior Environmental Specialist, Latvenergo