

DRAFT AGENDA

Sixth U.S.-China Oil and Gas Industry Forum

June 28-29, 2005

New Orleans, Louisiana – The Ritz-Carlton New Orleans

Monday, June 27, 2005

07.00 - 08.00 Continental Breakfast for site visit participants (Ritz-Carlton Hotel)

07.30 - 09.30 Registration Open

08.00 - 16.00 Site Visit- Lake Charles LNG Importing Facility, All day event

15.00 - 20.00 Registration Open

18.30 - 20.00 Hospitality Suite Open (Ritz-Carlton Hotel)

Tuesday, June 28, 2005

07.30 - 08.30 Breakfast - All participants

07.30 - 18.00 Registration (Ritz-Carlton Hotel)

08.00-08.30 VIP Meeting

08.30 – 09.30 Opening Plenary Session

Introduction of the Agenda (U.S.)

Mark Maddox, PDAS FE, USDOE

Mark Maddox will introduce all parties in Opening Plenary

Welcoming Remarks

- Mayor or State of Louisiana Official
- DOE Official
- DOC Official

Keynote Speech: China's energy and oil & gas policy in the new era (China)

09.30 - 12.30 Session I: Technology

Co-Chairman- China

Co-Chairman- US

DRAFT AGENDA

Deep water and unconventional oil and gas exploration and development - technologies and applications (China and U.S.)

Two or three U.S. speakers

Chinese respondent

10.30-10.45 Break

10.45-12.00 Session I: Technology (Continued)

Coalbed methane production and applications (China and U.S.)

U.S. speaker

Applications and trends in oil and gas technologies to maximize resource production (China)

Chinese speaker

US Respondent

U.S. participation in China's upstream activities, including intellectual property rights when using U.S. upstream technologies (U.S.)

U.S. speaker

Investment drivers for upstream technology deployment

U.S. speaker

12 noon-12.30 Dialogue and Q&A Session

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch - For all participants

13.30 – 15.45 Session II: Market Development

Co-Chairman- (US)

Co-Chairman- (China)

The structure of China's oil market, including the evolution of its oil import and export structure, and its future development (China)

Trends in U.S. oil markets and natural gas markets (U.S.)

U.S. speaker

Status of LNG infrastructure development and future prospects (China and U.S.)

Three U.S. speakers

Chinese Respondent

DRAFT AGENDA

The development of China's natural gas market, including resource estimates, reserve history, and projections of prices (wellhead and consumer) nationally and by region (China)

- Senior level Chinese official

US responder to Chinese presentation above, not a whole new presentation

15.45- 16.00 Break

16.00-17.00 Closing Plenary- Health, Safety, and Environment (HSE)

Co-Chairman- China

Co-Chairman- US

Best practices in implementing HSE (U.S.) and the current status of the application of HSE technology and its future development in China (China & US)

Joint presentation U.S. and China

U.S. Response panel

17.00-17.45 Dialogue and Q&A Session

17.45 Adjourn

18.00-19.30 Reception - Immediately following adjournment (Ritz-Carlton Hotel)

Wednesday, June 29, 2005 (1/2 Day Program)

07.30 - 12.30 Registration

07.30 - 08.30 Breakfast - All participants

08.30 – 10.00 Session III: Government Role

Co-Chairman US

Co-Chairman China

U. S. energy policies – The role of regulation and the role of market functioning for securing supplies, ensuring deliveries, and developing infrastructure (U.S.)

U.S. speaker

The overall opening up of China's oil and gas industry and market (China)

Chinese speaker

China's policies for oil reserves and for addressing high oil prices,

DRAFT AGENDA

and China's participation in world oil markets (China)
Chinese speaker

U.S. responses to high oil prices
U.S. DOC speaker

10.00-10.30 Open Discussion and Q&A Session

10.30 - 10.45 Break

10.45 - 11.30 Session IV: Closing Plenary
Co-chairman- DOE
Co-Chairman- DOC

Views on Sino-U.S. global energy and oil & gas cooperation
(China and U.S.)
Chinese speaker
U.S. DOE speaker

11.30-12.00 Open Discussion and Q&A Session

12.00 Adjourn