

THE UNITED STATES ENERGY ASSOCIATION
MEDIA/PUBLIC BRIEFING

World Energy Trilemma 2014

November 24, 2014

9:00 AM – 11:30 AM

Ballroom

The National Press Club

529 14th Street, NW, Washington, DC

---

World Energy Council releases World Energy Trilemma 2014. Topics include:

- U.S. needs $6 trillion in energy infrastructure supply chain through 2035 +
- $1.3 trillion in energy efficiency +
- Another 15% to achieve a 2°C emissions path +
- Uncertainties re policy and regulation +
- Financial best practices +
- International climate agreements
- U.S. energy policy rating on: Trilemma, energy equity, energy security, environment performance

You are invited to the release of the report and to dialogue with the panel that includes:

Moderator:

Joan MacNaughton - Executive Chair, WEC

Discussion Leaders:

- Francois Austin - Head of Energy Practice, Oliver Wyman
- Francisco Barnés - Commissioner, Mexico National Energy Commission
- Charles Feinstein - Director, Energy & Extractives Global Practice, World Bank, USA
- Marie-Jose Nadeau - Chair, WEC; Executive Vice President, Corporate Affairs & Secretary General, HydroQuebec
- Dean Oskvig - President & CEO, BV Energy, Black & Veatch
- Jonathan Pershing - Deputy Assistant Secretary for Climate Change Policy & Technology – U.S. Department of Energy

Register today:

<http://www.usea.org/node/1272/register>

